KESWICK – PATTERDALE HOTEL
208 ULLSWATER CONNEXION

Saturdays & Sundays: 24 May to 13 July 2008
Bank Holiday: 26 May 2008
Daily: 19 July until 31 August 2008

Thank You for using the Ullswater Connexion and leaving your car behind!

You have helped to reduce traffic, pollution and effects of climate change plus supported a local bus service – all-important issues in the Lake District National Park. There are more great journeys you can make like this one – look out for FREE Give the Driver a Break leaflets for Kirkstone, Ullswater, Borrowdale, Langdale, Coniston & Hawkshead, Kentmere, Honister & Buttermere & Windermere & Bowness.

Discounts with your 208 ticket

10% discounts on purchases on presentation of a 208 bus ticket at National Park Information Centres at Keswick, Bowness Bay and Glenridding.
FREE tea or coffee at the Royal Hotel, Dockray or at the Aira Force Cafe.
20% off at the Ratchers Restaurant and Kilners Coffee House at the Glenridding Hotel using the voucher below.

19th July - 31 August 10% off a round lake cruise with Ullswater Steamers.

A morning walk

Catch the 9.25 bus from Keswick bus station, arriving at the Royal Hotel Dockray at 9.45. The Hotel also run the Café at Aira Force and are kindly providing a free tea or coffee to Ullswater Connexion bus users, so make your choice where you would like your free drink - at the start of the walk or the end.

You have about 2 hours to enjoy a beautiful, largely downhill and gentle 1 1/2 mile walk, to a landscaped Victorian park, along Aira Beck, past High Force, before reaching the 70ft Aira Force itself, owned by the National Trust. For more information on Aira Force, contact them on 017684 88881. You can enjoy the Aira Force café and return to Keswick on the 12.02 bus, arriving back at 12.28.

Walk to Aira Force Waterfalls

Directly opposite the Royal Hotel is a distinctive black and white painted building - Dockray House. To the right of the house is a gateway - this is the start of the footpath to Aira Force. Follow the track through the farm buildings and on through a gate. The track runs parallel with Aira Beck. Continue on and use the footbridge to cross the small stream. Turn right and continue downhill along the footpath that runs alongside the beck (downstream) to the falls.

There are two footbridges along the waterfall section, allowing you to crisscross the river. Continue on down, admiring the falls, woodland and ornamental trees until you reach the car park and café. The bus stops are on the main road near the car park.

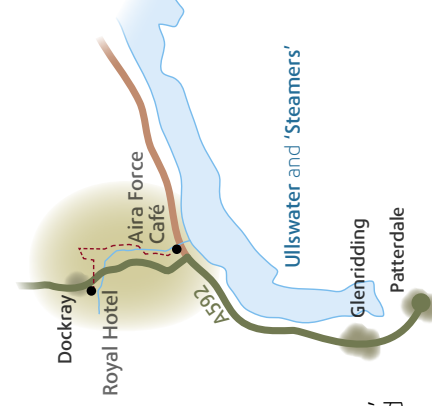

Glenridding Hotel Tear off the Bendigo the dog voucher to get your discounts at the Glenridding Hotel.

Whole day out

After doing the waterfall walk and for a longer day out, you can continue to Glenridding, by catching the Ullswater Connexion at 11.36 or at 13.51 from Aira Force. Take a stroll along Ullswater and enjoy spectacular views and discounts at the Glenridding Hotel. The Ullswater Connexion leaves Glenridding for Keswick at 15.50 and 17.15.

From 19 July to 31 August, you could also link in with Ullswater Steamers on the 12.55 "steamer" service from Glenridding to Pooley Bridge, arriving back at Glenridding at 15.10. You can then catch the Ullswater Connexion back to Keswick at 15.50, arriving in Keswick at 16.23.

Be prepared You will need stout footwear and it is always wise to be prepared with warm and waterproof clothing, as the weather can change quickly in the mountains.
